

Grant Explorer – from Guidestar

What is it?

Grant Explorer is the most comprehensive source of online grant information available. Whether you're a grant maker looking to analyze the funding of current and potential grant recipients or a grant seeker looking for potential sources of support, Grant Explorer can provide you with the tools you need to make the most informed decisions possible.

If you want to review historical grant activity, evaluate funding for similar organizations, or benchmark grant giving, Grant Explorer provides several ways for you to accomplish these tasks. Search for funders, grantees, or specific people in the philanthropic community using a wide variety of criteria.

How does it work?

Through a partnership between eTapestry and GuideStar.org, eTapestry customers can now purchase Grant Explorer as part of their eTapestry service. Users can easily reference grant information while working within eTapestry.

Grant Explorer is a comprehensive grant resource

Grant Explorer allows you to access information on more than 1.9 million grants made by more than 42,000 of the nation's largest foundations.

Grant Explorer is timely

Grant Explorer's information is dynamic! We update the Grant Explorer database weekly to provide you with the most up-to-date grant information.

Grant Explorer is versatile

Whether you're looking for data on private foundations that give grants or public charities that receive them, Grant Explorer allows you to navigate seamlessly between funder and grantee organizations.

Grant Explorer offers easy, flexible, and affordable search options

Grant Explorer's simple navigation tools give you quick access to the information you need. You can search by funder, grant recipient, grant size, grant making location, and grant-recipient NTEE code. Our People Search allows you to find leaders in the philanthropic funding community.

Summary

Grant Explorer, from GuideStar subscriptions, starts at $499 (USD) per year.
